

NOMINATION FOR THE 2008 ANNUAL GAULT AWARD

The Gault Award was established by the Board of Directors of the Indiana Public Defender Council to annually recognize a lawyer who has demonstrated an outstanding degree of commitment, competency, and professionalism in representing juvenile clients. The award is named after the In re Gault case that established the right to counsel in juvenile delinquency cases.

The recipient of the Gault Award must be an active member of the bar who devotes a significant portion of his or her legal practice to providing indigent defense representation in juvenile cases.
